Hope Kimber, daughter of Karin Kimber, vice chair of the Morrisville Children’s Center and professor in the Math Department, takes food orders at the Children’s Center-sponsored concessions stand during the Mustang Homecoming Football game.
Transfer Representative Visit
A representative from SUNY Oswego will be on campus Thursday, October 13, 2005, from 11:30 a.m. – 1:30 p.m. in Seneca Dining Hall to talk with graduating students regarding transfer.

Book Store Arrival
Maria Snyder will be at the Campus Store for a book signing on October 17 from 2-4p.m.

Attention Perkins Loan Recipients
Perkins loan applications were sent to those students who were eligible to receive this loan. You have until October 14 to get your completed applications back to our office.

For those students who do not return these on time, your loan will be cancelled and you will be responsible for any balance owed on your account.
(Left) Brianna Crumb, automotive major, kneels with her parents Terry and Doug in front of the clock by Seneca Dining Hall.

(Bottom left) MSC horticulture majors Kim Landers and James Rearic arrange signs in front of Spader Hall directing visitors to the horticulture plant sale and floral design contest.

(Bottom right) Aida Kahlil, assistant professor of horticulture, stands before the array of floral designs on display at for the floral design contest.
(Left) Sylvia and Carl Potter, Marcia Horn, and Justin Smith wait for the Mustang vs. Dean Junior College football game to start.

(Bottom left) Jim Shetler, mechanical engineering major, stands proudly behind his custom bike.

(Bottom top right) Agricultural Engineering Club students ride on their float that went down Route 20 during the Cruisin’ Down Memory Lane parade.

(Bottom right) SGO President Mike Watson waves to spectators as he and fellow classmates ride down Route 20 during the parade.
We very much appreciate the tremendous campus involvement and cooperation that took place during “Mustang Weekend 2005.” A program of this magnitude requires the dedicated work of many, and the exceptional services provided for alumni, family and friends of Morrisville State College was central to the success of this event. Thank you all very much!

Morrisville State College Alumni/Development - Fostering Relationships and Finding Resources

(Left) Journalism student, Jeralee O’Hara (center), and her parents Thomas and Aprille came to the football game to watch their son, Jarrett (#66) play football against Dean Junior College.

(Bottom left) The Kunz family participates in the Fishing Derby.

(Bottom right) Shereen Green and Jacob Worden measure Chester Reeves’ catch during the Fishing Derby.
Field Trips
The following students have approval to attend the New England Kiln Drying Association meeting in Danbury, CT, on October 18-20, 2005, with their instructor, Mr. Wayne Hausknecht. The students will leave campus at noon on October 18 and will return to campus at 7 p.m. on October 20. The students have been instructed to contact their instructors in advance of any missed classes to arrange for appropriate makeup.

Bowers, Joshua  McGrew, Kevin
Cady, Phillip   Schloss, Weston
Costello, Jim   Vargo, Michael
Dolan, Patrick  Wood, Adam
Johnston, Dale

The following students had approval to participate in a conference at the Marx Hotel in Syracuse, New York, with their instructor, Dr. Joan Johnson, on October 4-6, 2005. The students left campus at 1 p.m. on October 4 and returned to campus at 5 p.m. They left campus at 6:30 a.m. on October 5 and returned to campus at 5 p.m. On October 6, they left campus at 6:30 a.m. and returned to campus at 3 p.m. The students were instructed to contact their instructors in advance of any missed classes to arrange for appropriate makeup.

Mike Zapach  Brett Freese
Barb Chesbro  Jennifer Castillo
Keith Tuthill  Carolina Uribe

James C. VanRiper
Interim Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs