(Front to back) Matt Page, liberal arts and sciences-humanities and social sciences major; Kris Childs, sports nutrition and fitness management major, and Chris Crossway, natural resources and conservation major, are greeted at the end of the college's convocation ceremony, by faculty who flanked a walkway to shake new students' hands and wish them well as they start their semester.
Art Show
The library is featuring an art display in gallery with the work of Leigh Yardley, who teaches painting and drawing. Leigh’s work will be on display until September 26. An opening reception will be held on September 12 from 3 p.m. to 4:45 p.m. in the library.

Student Success Seminars Starting September 2
The Academic Enrichment Center (AEC) is sponsoring Student Success Seminars beginning the first week of September. The ten seminars will be held Tuesdays and Thursdays at 1-1:50 p.m. in Crawford 114. Topics are geared toward helping students improve their ability to succeed and include time management, taking lecture notes, reading strategies, test-taking skills, study techniques, memorizing, improving vocabulary, learning styles, internships and career placement, and alleviating test anxiety. Seminars will be facilitated by the following professional staff: Owen Corpin, Elizabeth Dana, Jessica DeStefano, Stephanie Lawhorne, John McBride, Patricia Samson, and David Symonds. For more information, contact Stephanie Lawhorne, Director of Academic Support, at x. 6360 or lawhorsl@morrisville.edu.

Dairy Club Annual Dairy Cattle Sale

The Morrisville State College Dairy Club will hold its twenty-sixth annual dairy cattle sale on Sept. 6.

The sale will begin at 11 a.m. at the Madison County Cooperative Extension Center on Eaton Street in Morrisville, across from the college football field.

More than 120 top-quality registered Holstein cattle will be sold at the event.

The Morrisville State College Dairy Club provides students with opportunities to broaden their knowledge of the dairy industry through participation in various activities including field trips and the annual dairy cattle sale.

Proceeds from the sale support dairy club trips, the dairy judging team, academic programs and various activities and events.

List of Faculty Eligible Promotion Consideration 2008-2009

The following list of faculty meets the minimum requirements according to the guidelines in the Faculty Handbook for promotion during this academic year. The Promotion Committee procedure requires each individual faculty who is seeking promotion to submit a Letter of Intent for Consideration of Promotion to the Office of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs by September 26. The procedure further specifies that School/Division Promotion Committees are to be formed by October 3, 2008. School/Division Promotion Committees will begin deliberations the week of October 6 and will complete review of the promotion materials and make recommendations for suggested changes to the candidate by October 10. School/Division Promotion Committees must submit promotion materials to the Office of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs by October 31, 2008. No changes can be made to the materials after this date. The campus Promotion Committee will begin deliberations the week of November 3. February 1 is the deadline for the campus Promotion Committee’s submission of recommendations to the President.

If there are errors or omissions on the list below, please contact the Vice President for Academic Affairs Office immediately for clarification (x6054).
