The Admissions Ambassador Program is looking for students to assist in the promotion and recruitment of each academic program on campus. The Admissions Ambassadorship awards current students a $1000/year stipend for their help. Students are responsible for:

- Attending orientation and training session outlining admissions process and available campus resources
- Contacting prospective Morrisville State College students
- Assisting with student recruitment for Side Kick Days as well as hosting potential students
- Attending appropriate Admissions events and promoting Baccalaureate programs
- Providing admissions with academic updates and other valuable information to be utilized in publications and website forums

Students must be in good academic standing and maintain a 2.75 GPA. Students interested in applying for an admissions ambassadorship are required to submit an application and resume, as well as have maintained a 2.75 GPA. Students selected for the program are required to participate in a formal interview process and will be reviewed by a committee consisting of admissions staff and a minimum of three faculty volunteers.

Please stop by the Admissions Office for an application. Deadline for spring 2010 applications is October 26.

For more information regarding The Admissions Ambassador Program, please call the Admissions Office at 800-258-0111 or email admissions@morrisville.edu.
Lee Brown Coye Art Exhibit

A popular exhibit featuring the work of the famed “Magic of Macabre,” Lee Brown Coye, will be on display at the Donald G. Butcher Library from Oct. 5 through Nov. 1.

Coye was a multidisciplinary artist widely known for his fantasy and horror illustrations. The exhibit contains a varied collection of his work including examples from his cover art for Weird Tales, a popular pulp magazine, and illustrations from a number of books, paintings and wood carvings.

There will also be a lecture, “The Horrors of Upstate: H.P. Lovecraft and Others,” by Dan Harms of SUNY Cortland Memorial Library, on Thursday, Oct. 22 at 5 p.m. Harms will be discussing the relationship between Coye (who provided illustrations for Lovecraft’s books) and Lovecraft.

The Donald G. Butcher Library is open Monday through Thursday from 8 a.m.-midnight, Friday from 8 a.m.-5 p.m., Saturday, noon-6 p.m., Sunday 1-10 p.m.
Student Success Seminar

There are no scheduled Student Success Seminars held this week due to October break. Seminars will resume on Tuesday, October 20.

Morrisville SEFA Campaign

From October 19 - 23, Morrisville State Employees Federated Appeal (SEFA) “Captains” will be presenting all college, MAC and Research Foundation employees with information concerning the SEFA Fund Drive. This worthy, charitable, fund raising effort takes the place of local Community Chest and United Fund Appeal drives in the CNY area. It provides State, MAC and Research Foundation employees with an opportunity to act as a group, along with other workers state-wide in supporting the efforts of numerous social service agencies. Every employee will receive a payroll deduction authorization card covering the 26 pay periods in 2010. A payroll period deduction of $1.00 would result in an annual gift of $26.00 to assist agencies you can designate. Please consider the information you receive thoughtfully and join in this effort.
