

A DAY OF DIALOGUE: CREATING A CULTURALLY ENGAGED COMMUNITY

Friday, October 19, 2018 ■ 9 a.m. - 6 p.m.

Keynote speaker: Dr. Samuel Museus,
Professor of Education Studies at the University of California, San Diego

Diversity and Inclusion workshops for:

- Students
- College faculty and staff
- Community members

Registration: 9-10 a.m. — Student Activities Center (STUAC) Lobby

Art Force 5 Abolitionist Mosaic: Representing the National Abolitionist Museum (Peterboro, New York)

Join this creativity superhero team in painting one simple pattern onto a 2" x 2" ceramic tile. Feel the power of community-based art to unite, discuss and create a culture of both inclusion and civility. The final art piece, with your signature, will be permanently displayed at the Morrisville campus.

All-Day Event in STUAC Lobby

Dr. Samuel Museus, Keynote Speaker: Finding Hope in Struggle: Navigating Turbulent Times to Advance Social Justice

Professor of Education Studies at the University of California, San Diego.

Time: 10-11 a.m. ■ Location: STUAC Theater

First Breakout Sessions

Time: 11 a.m.-Noon

Lunch served at Mustang Alley and Seneca Dining Hall (free for attendees).

Time: Noon-1 p.m. — Dialogue topics can be found on tables.

How are you #ALLIN for Diversity, Equity and Inclusion?

Time: 1 p.m. ■ Location: Donald G. Butcher Library Lobby

Photo opportunity or paint your square for the ART Force 5 Mural in STUAC Lobby.

Second Breakout Sessions

Time: 1:30-2:30 p.m.

Dr. Samuel Museus meets with students

Time: 2:30-3:30 p.m. ■ Location: STUAC Theater

Career Connect for Students: Connect with Alumni and Businesses

Time: 3:30 p.m. — Hospitality Suite

Student Club Program

Time: 5 p.m. ■ Location: Crawford 107

SUNY MORRISVILLE
OFFICE OF DIVERSITY, EQUITY & INCLUSIVITY