

REGIONAL APPLIED LEARNING CONFERENCE

SATURDAY, MARCH 30, 2019

Keynote Speaker: Randy Wolken President & CEO, MACNY, The Manufacturers Association

Randy Wolken is the President and CEO of MACNY—The Manufacturers Association, which serves more than 330 companies with more than 100,000 employees in a 26-county region in Upstate New York. Wolken also serves as President and CEO of the Manufacturers Alliance of New York, a coalition of manufacturing groups representing more than 2,500 companies and more than 425,000 manufacturing employees throughout New York State.

John C. Stewart Student
Activities Center (STUAC) -
Parking available in Lot A

9-9:45 a.m.
STUAC Theater
Keynote address:
“Presenting the Strengths of Applied Learning”

10-11:30 a.m.
Student Showcase located in
STUAC lobby and lower level

STUDENT SHOWCASE

Poster Presentation
2019 Applied Learning
Student Showcase

The Strengths of Applied Learning - The Power to Produce

Open to both academic and co-curricular areas, students will illustrate their experiences, learning engagement, research, service-learning or client-based projects impacted by applied learning. Whether their project initiated with theory, an idea, or specific academic goals, come see a snapshot of how students applied their work to real-time environments.

SUNY MORRISVILLE

John C. Stewart Student Activities Center
80 Eaton Street, Morrisville, NY 13408
www.morrisville.edu

Questions?

Call: Jason Zbock
315.684.6133